

Animals: Aspects & Approaches

The Fourteenth Oxford Medieval Graduate Conference

Thursday June 28th 2018, Harris Manchester College, Oxford

- 9-9.20am Registration
- 9.20-9.30am Welcome
- 9.30-11am Joint Keynote Address
Humans and Animals: A Defining Relationship?
- Timothy Bourns (St Edmund Hall, Oxford), 'Animals in Norse Mythology'
 - Lesley MacGregor (Oriel College, Oxford), 'Humans and Animals: Defining the "Other"'
- 11-11.30am Break with Hot & Cold Drinks
- 11.30am-1pm Animals in A Human World – Chair: Claire Macht (Kellogg College, Oxford)
- Alexander Thomas (University of Bristol), 'Animals, Archaeology and the Danelaw Boundary'
 - Allison Treese (University of York), 'Reading the Relationship between Hawk and Handler in The Boke of St. Albans'
 - Tim Wingard (University of York), "'By the Temptation of the Devil": Narratives of Bestiality in the Registre criminel du Châtelet de Paris'
- 1-2.15pm Lunch (provided)
- 2.15-3.45pm Blurring Boundaries – Chair: Emilie Lavallée (St Cross College, Oxford)
- Amy Brown (University of Geneva), 'Cross-Dressing and Cross-Species Sex: The Obscene Spectacle of the Sow and the Lions in the Prose Merlin'
 - Maialen Maugars (Warburg Institute), 'Animal Masks and Costumes in Late Medieval Court Culture: Exploring the Boundary between Civilisation and Wilderness'
 - Alexander Peplow (Merton College, Oxford), 'Do Animals Have Souls? Adelard of Bath and non-Aristotelian Natural Philosophy'
- 3.45-4.15pm Break with Hot & Cold Drinks
- 4.15-5.45pm Motif and Metaphor – Chair: Susanna Markert (Jesus College, Oxford)
- William Brockbank (Jesus College, Oxford), 'Wild Weather and Washed-up Whales: The "Whale on the Beach" Motif in the Íslendingasögur'
 - Aylin Malcolm (University of Pennsylvania), "'For They Kan Nat the Craft": Art(ifice) and Chaucer's Robotic Horse'
 - India Morris (Merton College, Oxford), "'As Bartholomew the Bestiary babliþ on his bokes,": The Sources of the Apian Metaphor in Mum and the Sothsegger'
- 5.45-6.45pm Keynote Address: Eric Stanley (Professor Emeritus, Pembroke College, Oxford)
SUCH OLD ENGLISH ANIMALS AS:
docga, frocga, hogga, pic[g]-bred, staggon (acc. pl.), birds sugga and hrucge, insect wicga.
- 6.45-7.30pm Drinks Reception at Harris Manchester College (included)
- 7.30pm Conference Dinner (optional – location tbd)

To register and for more info, visit: aevum.space/animals

Get in touch: oxgradconf@gmail.com

Follow us on Twitter @OxMedGradConf

Images:

© British Library Board, Sloane MS 4016, fol. 96^r (left)
Bodleian Libraries, MS. Ashmole 1462, fol. 45^v (centre)